

SPORT FOR GOOD

MOUNT KILIMANJARO CLIMB 03 - 14 December 2010

Join sporting legends to scale the highest peak in Africa and raise funds for the Laureus Sport for Good Foundation

MARTINA NAVRATILOVA Tennis legend & Laureus World Sports Academy member

MICHAEL TEUBER Paralympic Cycling Champion & Laureus Friend & Ambassador

DESHUN DEYSEL High Altitude Mountaineer with two attempts on Mt. Everest, Laureus Friend & Ambassador

You could be part of the Laureus Kilimanjaro Team and spend 11 days with these inspirational sports stars who have committed to use the power of sport to change the world. Together with them, you can raise funds for the Foundation and help to increase awareness of how sport can be used to tackle some of the world's most pressing social issues.

- Summit the highest mountain on the African continent (5895m)
- 10 days trekking at altitude in one of the world's most scenic surroundings
- See the sunrise from the rooftop of Africa
- Bush trekking in unspoilt wilderness
- Experience every eco-system known to mankind
- Stop-off in Kenya to visit the Laureus-supported charity Mathare Youth Sports Association, to see where the funds you raise will make a difference
- All costs included

To apply:
tom.soper@laureus.com
+44 (0) 207 514 2799
www.laureus.com/foundation

Registered Charity No. 1111364

Registration fee £595

Minimum sponsorship £3,900

Using the power of sport to change the world